DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. This Office action is in response to the amendment dated August 3, 2004. Claims 1 and 2 were amended. Claim 9 was newly added. Claims 1-9 are pending.
2. The rejection of claims 2 and 6-8 under 35 USC 112, second paragraph, set forth in the Office action mailed May 3, 2004, paragraph 3, is withdrawn due to the amendment.
3. The rejection of claims 1 and 2 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Das et al. Journal of Indian Chemistry, 61(8), p. 697-698, (1984) is withdrawn due to the amendment. The R1 and R2 groups are now limited to C4-10 alkyl groups.
4. The rejection of claim 1 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kharitonova et al., Koordinatsionnaya Khimiya, 9(3), p. 319-321, (1983) is withdrawn due to the amendment.
5. The rejection of claim 1 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kralova et al., Monograph Series of the International Conferences on Coordination Chemistry held periodically at Smolenice in Slovakia, 3 (Progress in Coordination and Organometallic Chemistry), p. 233-238, (1997) is withdrawn due to the amendment.
6. The rejection of claim 1 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bhirud et al., Inorganica Chimica Acta, 173, (1990), pages 121-125 is withdrawn due to the amendment.

Claim Objections

7. Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: The text of claim 1 refers to "formula (i)"; however, the actual formula shown uses capital (I). Consistency in naming the formula is suggested. Appropriate correction is required.

Specification

8. The amendment filed August 3, 2004 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132 because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132 states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows:

Applicant has added a general compound formula that is broader than what was previously present in the specification. Formula (I) inserted on page 4 has three "R" groups attached to the nitrogen whereas the previous formula has only two "R" groups attached to the nitrogen. Only specific formulas XIII and X has three "R" groups attached to the nitrogen are supported by the original disclosure. In addition, applicant now claims R₃-R₈ may be C₁-C₆ hydroxyalkyl. The only hydroxyalkyl groups supported by the original disclosure are those specifically shown in formulas X and XIII, which do not provide support for a range of the number of carbon atoms as broad as given in the amendment. Also, it is not seen where the original disclosure supports C₃-C₉ alkenyl groups for groups R₃-R₈. Furthermore, with regard to groups R₃ to R₈ forming a condensed aromatic ring with the two nitrogen atoms, only the specific formulas II, VIII, IX, XI, and XII having condensed groups attached to the nitrogen atoms are supported by the original disclosure. In addition, the added "R" groups in the amended paragraph inserted at page 7 are considered to be new matter for the same reasons as described above.

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

9. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 1774

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

10. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Support has not been found in the specification for the full scope of amended Formula (I) in claim 1. Formula (I) of claim 1 has three "R" groups attached to the nitrogen whereas the previous formula has only two "R" groups attached to the nitrogen. Only specific formulas XIII and X having three groups attached to the nitrogen are supported by the original disclosure. In addition, applicant now claims R₃-R₈ may be C₁₋₆ hydroxyalkyl. The only hydroxyalkyl groups supported by the original disclosure are those specifically shown in formulas X and XIII, which do not provide support for a range of the number of carbon atoms as broad as given in the amendment. Also, it is not seen where the original disclosure supports C₃-C₉ alkenyl groups for groups R₃-R₈. Furthermore, with regard to groups R₃ to R₈ forming a condensed aromatic ring with the two nitrogen atoms, only the specific formulas II, VIII, IX, XI, and XII having condensed groups attached to the nitrogen atoms are supported by the original disclosure.

Response to Arguments

11. Applicant's arguments filed August 3, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant states "Applicants most respectfully submit that the detailed amendments to the specification and claims are fully supported by the application as originally filed as would be appreciated by one of ordinary skill in the art to which the invention pertains. In this regard, please note that the amendment to claim 1 and the corresponding amendments in the specification correct obvious errors which would be fully appreciated by one of ordinary skill in the art to which the invention pertains." The examiner has carefully considered the passages and formulas cited by applicant as providing support for the amendment. The examiner has concluded that the specification as originally filed as well as the foreign priority document do not provide support for the compound as currently claimed. The examiner does note that the very specific example compounds do fall within the scope of the currently claimed compound and these particular compounds are supported by the specification. These few example compounds do not provide full support for all the substituent possibilities set forth in broadly claimed formula (I).

Conclusion

12. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
